

BROKER TRAINEE - STAMFORD, CT

Our client, a leading broker shop in the US and Asia, is looking for 2 Broker Trainees to join their expanding team. In this role, you will use your previous maritime experience/education to start from the ground floor in the commercial brokerage world. We are looking for someone with the following:

- College/university degree, maritime academy preferred
- 2-3 years sailing on tankers a plus
- Ambitious and energetic attitude
- Comfortable talking on the phone
- Able to multi task, work under pressure with little oversight
- Must be able to work in the US, no Visa or Sponsorship available at this time

In return for the above, our client offers a generous base salary, company benefits, and paid vacation. This is a great opportunity for a young and aggressive maritime graduate that wants to learn the world of brokerage from an established shop. This company has a very successful track record of training and growing successful brokers.
