DOUBLE MAJORS

A student may have a second major transcribed and appear on the diploma under the following conditions:

1. Academic departments shall publish “Double Major Guidelines” specific to the second major defining requirements. All courses in the second curriculum must be completed within the guidance of the Double Major Guidelines of the second major.
2. Any plan for a second major must be approved in advance by both department chairs and the Provost.
3. If the additional required courses necessary to complete the second major are less than a total of 18 credits, additional courses must be taken so that at least 18 credits are taken in the second major. These additional required courses must not be in common with the first major. These credits are to be in upper division courses approved in advance by the chair of the second major department. For the purpose of this paragraph 3, upper division courses are defined to be courses with a number of 300 or higher not including license courses.
4. Students must adhere to the Double Major Guidelines of both departments.
5. An overall GPA of 2.7 must be achieved.
6. There will be no mixed degrees, e.g. B.S. and B.E.
