

MARITIME RECRUITMENT ASSOCIATE - POMPANO BEACH, FL

Flagship Management is the leading Maritime, Oil/Gas and Power Generation Recruitment firm in the US. The demand to find top talent is stronger than ever, and we are expanding to meet the needs and demands of our Clients. Flagship is looking to hire and train motivated individuals to learn the business and become a part of our company's success. As a recruiter, you will use your strong interpersonal skills to manage the recruitment process by identifying, screening, and following up with candidates as well as developing and coordinating effective recruitment strategies. You will establish relationships with candidates by social networking, headhunting, ad responses, research and by attending local industry events.

If you have the following skill set, we want you to join our established and thriving team:

- Ability to be self managed and motivated, but also work in a team environment
- Be well spoken and professional while representing Flagship Management
- Sales and marketing personality with an entrepreneurial spirit
- Phone sales or recruitment background a plus
- Maritime Academy graduate preferred (but not required), BS/BA Degree required, maritime knowledge a major plus

Our Headquarters overlooks the intracoastal waterway in Pompano Beach, FL. We have a relaxed, flexible and fun working environment. We offer a competitive and uncapped compensation structure, medical benefits, and generous vacation time. We will provide you with all the training, tools and guidance you will need to thrive: just bring your strong work ethic, positive attitude, and drive to succeed!
