About Dr. DeAngelis

When the Maritime Adventure Boat Camp was just an idea, "Dr. D", as she is affectionately known, encouraged colleagues that opening Maritime's campus to the community was not just a good idea but was integral to the mission of a public college. Dr. DeAngelis demonstrated her commitment to sharing her passion for the marine environment in many ways including providing professional development for public school teachers in Washington Heights, mentoring Maritime staff and students in developing marine environmental science lessons for the camp, and through her enthusiasm inspiring the next generation of scientists in the classroom, in the field or during camp. Any idea or lesson Dr. D was part of developing she encouraged to be shared freely for the maximum benefit of others.

The Waterfront is humbled to honor Dr. D's memory by providing access to all to enjoy and learn about the marine environment through our Financial Assistance and Scholarship Program.

No, not all eligible applicants will receive financial assistance.

How are applicants chosen for Awards?

Awards are based on: 1) demonstrated financial need, 2) potential for growth and development, 3) background and experience which will broaden the diversity of the program, 4) interest and involvement in the program, 5) space availability. Priority is given to applicants who are new to the program or are returning for their second summer.

Who decides if my child is chosen for an Award?

Recommendations for Awards are made by the Scholarship Committee.

When will I find out if my child is chosen for an Award?

Applications received by April 1 will be notified by e-mail by April 9 of the status of their Award. If you do not have access to email, please contact the Waterfront to make other arrangements.

I'm not sure I will receive an Award. Should I go ahead and register my child to reserve a space and still apply?

We do reserve space in camp for scholarship applicants. If you are awarded assistance, you will be given a code to register online with a discount. However, if you prefer a specific session and you do not want to wait to see if you've received an Award, you may register online before you've been notified. Based on your award status, you may be eligible for a refund, but an Award is not guaranteed.

If chosen for an Award, will I have to pay any money?

Yes. Awards range from 10% to 80% of the total cost of registration. If chosen for any type of Award, we will ask you to pay a deposit of the discounted tuition to secure your child's space and commit to the program by April 15. The remaining balance of the tuition is due one month before the program begins.
